Why Thorne?

Formulas are based on science

- Thorne is the only supplement company the Mayo Clinic works with to conduct clinical trials and provide educational content.

Leading standard for quality and purity

- 15% of incoming raw materials are rejected because of their high standards and rigorous testing. Thorne does not use unnecessary fillers or binders.

Word-class collaborations

- Thorne partners with the Mayo Clinic, Cleveland Clinic, Johns Hopkins, U.S. National Teams, 95 professional sports teams, and the UFC. Thorne has more NSF Certified for Sport® products than any other company.
